ROLLING MEADOWS BRANCH OF THE COOK COUNTY
ASSESSOR'S OFFICE IS CLOSED; ELK GROVE TOWNSHIP
ASSESSOR'S OFFICE TO TAKE OVER SERVICES FOR ELK GROVE
TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS

Contact Person: Connie Carosielli, Elk Grove Township Assessor

In response to a series of budget cuts made by the Cook County Board of Commissioners in recent years, the Cook County Assessor's office has closed its' branch office in the Rolling Meadows Courthouse.

Elk Grove Township residents who have been using the Rolling Meadows branch office are encouraged to make use of the services of the Elk Grove Township Assessor's office, located at 2400 S. Arlington Heights Road in Arlington Heights. "Most of the services provided by the branch offices of the Cook County Assessor's Office are also available from the Elk Grove Township Assessor's office," said Connie Carosielli. "For example, senior citizens needing help completing senior freeze forms and taxpayers with questions about other exemptions can come to my office for information and assistance." The Elk Grove Township Assessor's office also provides help to taxpayers seeking to file assessment appeals, apply for refunds, among many other services.

Assessor Carosielli does not expect the closing of the Rolling Meadows branch office to have a large impact on Elk Grove Township residents. "Because my office is in a convenient location and strives to provide high quality services, most Elk Grove Township residents needing property tax help visit my office rather than the Rolling Meadows branch office," Carosielli said. "Accordingly, I believe the closing of the Rolling Meadows branch office will have a minimal impact of Elk Grove Township residents."
